New Device? Can't Figure It Out? Get Technology Help From a Librarian!

Around the holidays and New Year, people often get new devices, so this is a great time to remember that you can receive free technology help from the Library!

Whether you need help with basic computer skills, or you have just one issue you can't seem to master, you can make an appointment with a librarian for one-on-one assistance. Dalton can help you with MS Word, Excel, email, or Zoom; Ernie can help you with tech issues on your iPad, tablet, smartphone, or other mobile device. Or maybe you want help accessing the library's collection of free ebooks, eaudios, magazines, music, and movies? Either expert librarian can help!

For more information or to make an appointment, please go to www.pspl.org/services/techsessions

Expanded Service Outreach to New and Growing Families

PSPL Outreach Services assist Franklin County residents who may have difficulty coming to the Library. This includes families with new infants! The Library can deliver materials directly to your home — participants may request books, DVDs, and other library materials for older siblings, the new child, or themselves for up to a year after the birth of their child.

For more information, please contact Paula at 502-352-2665 x111 or paulaf@pspl.org

It's Back

Puzzle Swap Coming Soon!

Calling all puzzlers! Beginning January 2, drop off your complete, gently-used jigsaw puzzles at the Check Out Desk. For each donated item, you will receive a ticket. Then, join us on Saturday, February 1, to swap out each of your tickets for a new-to-you puzzle! (One puzzle per ticket.)

This is a great way to clear your shelves of puzzles you've already completed and get your hands on some new puzzles to put together during these cold, winter months!

Making a big purchase?

Read Product Reviews on Consumer Reports

PSPL provides free access to ConsumerReports.org, a buying advice tool that will ensure you get the best deal or product. You can use it to find reliable ratings and reviews for thousands of products and help you make the most of your time and money.

You can research products in categories such as appliances, cars, electronics, home and garden, babies and kids, and more! You can also access money-saving advice, buying guides, videos, and more.

To access ConsumerReports.org, visit the library website: www.pspl.org/consumer-reports

If you have any questions, please contact the Library. We would be glad to help!

READ This! Staff Picks

These are books that PSPL staff have read and loved. Check them out!

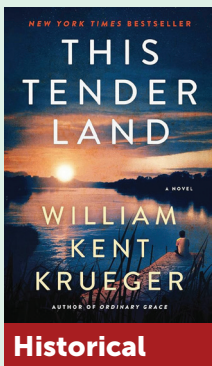

The Black Bird Oracle by Deborah Harkness

Diana Bishop journeys to the darkest places within herself—and her family history—in the highly anticipated fifth novel of the beloved All Souls series. Recommended by Diane D.

In Five Years by Rebecca Serle

Where do you see yourself in five years? Dannie spends one hour exactly five years in the future before she wakes again in her own home—but it is one hour she cannot shake. Recommended by Stacy S.

This Tender Land by William Kent Krueger

1932. The Lincoln School is a pitiless place where Native American children are sent to be educated. Four orphans will journey into the unknown and cross paths with others who are adrift. Recommended by Paula F.

One evening, two strangers meet by chance. Amanda and Wendy have much in common, including an intense desire for revenge against the men who destroyed their families. As they talk into the night, they make a deadly pact: if you kill for me, I'll kill for you. Recommended by Karyn C.

You Like it Darker by Stephen King

A collection of twelve short stories: King's ability to surprise, amaze, and bring us both terror and solace remains unsurpassed. Each of these stories holds its own thrills, joys, and mysteries. Recommended by Jenny C.

Jailbird by Kurt Vonnegut
This portrait of power and politics follows bumbling bureaucrat Walter F. Starbuck from Harvard to the Nixon White House to the penitentiary as Watergate's least known co-conspirator. Recommended by Harry W.

Zom 100 by Haro Aso
When a zombie apocalypse ravages his town, Akira begins a mission to complete all 100 items on his bucket list before he...well, kicks the bucket. Recommended by Vicki G.

BRZRKR by Keanu Reeves
The man known only as B is half-mortal and half-god, cursed and compelled to violence. But after centuries, the Berzerker may have finally found a refuge, working for the U.S. government, in exchange for the truth about his existence. Recommended by Nick B.
